The nominees for Magistrates are: J. H. Raines, Stanford; W. D. Wallin, Crab Orchard; W. A. Coffey, Hustonville; J. T. Brown, Waynesburg.
The nominees for Constables are: M. Speed Peyton, Stanford; T. K. Pettus, Crab Orchard; T. G. Nunnally, Hustonville; W. F. Clymer, Waynesburg.

FOR years it was the battle cry of the republicans that there was something rotten at Frankfort and that there must be a chance to look at the books. The continued cry of "Wolf!" finally made even a few democrats believe that there was something in it and at last the chance was given the republicans. Of course they found the books all right, as the more honest of the republicans knew and the more intelligent democrats never doubted. The books were always open for inspection, but since the rats have become their keepers it seems that they are kept under lock and key from the public. Col. W. S. Forrester, of the Louisville Capital, has been demanding an investigation of the chair contract, which robs the State of $100,000 or more annually, and failing to get it, instituted one of his own. His committee of chair makers went to Frankfort this week and asked to examine the books, when they were not only denied the privilege, but treated with the scantest courtesy. The "chair" contract is the worst of raids on the treasury and the sinking fund commissioners, who made and continue to sanction it, deserve to be scourged from the temple with thongs.

JUDGE W. H. HOLT, who honored us with a call after his speech here for the republican ticket, paid Judge J. E. Cantrill, of the Frankfort circuit, very high compliments as a man and as an expounder of the law, adding that no higher appreciation could be shown of his services than that he had been accorded a clear track for re-election both by his own party and the republicans. Judge Holt is one of the best men in his party and had it sent him to the United States Senate, instead of Deboe, it would have been decidedly more creditable to the republicans as well as to the State.

DEMOCRACY and democrats are coming to the front again. In Chattanooga Tuesday the mayor and six out of eight councilmen elected are democrats, the majority for mayor being 995. The city usually goes 400 to 500 republican. Indianapolis also went democratic by 4,008, the largest plurality ever given there. Tom Taggart was re-elected mayor although McKinley carried the city by 6,744. The whole democratic ticket and a large majority of the democratic nominees for the council are elected by majorities somewhat smaller than that of Taggart.

THE democrats of Lincoln should not relax their energies because they seem to have the fight for their ticket won. Eternal vigilance is the price, not only of liberty, but of all achievements and it must be kept up to the close of the polls on the 2d day of November. All the signs point to a complete and sweeping democratic victory. It can be accomplished only, however, by every man doing his duty and standing square on his rights.

W. S. TAYLOR, by a merciless fate attorney general for Kentucky, is at Washington to argue a lottery case before the supreme court. Taylor, before that august body making a speech! Can mortal man conceive of anything more sublimely, or better, more ridiculously ridiculous than such a performance? Ye gods and little fishes! What's the matter with the fool killer that he doesn't perform his manifest duty in the premises.

THE rats held another pow-wow at Richmond and again begged and implored Senator John Bennett to permit the use of his name for circuit judge, but he peremptorily declined. The Senator is wiser in his day and generation than the children of light. He knows that Judge Scott can't be beaten and running for office for the fun of the thing is mighty poor amusement.

THE report of the Interstate Commerce Commission that one of every 152 railroad trainmen are killed yearly, shows that those who go into that kind of business take their lives in their hands even more than those who go down to sea.

THIS amendment to the constitution will be voted on in November and should be defeated:

"The General Assembly may by general laws provide for taxation by municipalities of property other than lands and improvements thereon, based on income, licenses or franchises which may be in addition to or in lieu of ad valorem taxes thereon."

It strikes us that such an amendment is not needed. The ad valorem is the fairest form of taxation. The republican State convention declared in favor of the amendment and that is another sign that there is something wrong about it. Let democrats vote "no" on the proposition.

SENATOR DEBOE is devoting much of his bungling speeches for Bailey to abusing Col. Forrester, of the Louisville Capital, who he says, is no better a republican than the meanest free silver democrat. The colonel's frequent shafts at the cuticle of the "250 pounds of salt pork," as he affectionately calls Deboe, has evidently reached a tender spot, which causes the old blubber to rage in impotent fury. What Forrester has been doing to Deboe is a plenty and he will continue to give him Goss and rub it in.

ACCORDING to the very latest court finding New Albany kisses may now be taken without the consent of the owner at a cost of $8.30 each. There is practically no river and absolutely no quarantine between Louisville and New Albany.—Times. Louisvillians will hardly appreciate this suggestion. If New Albany maidens gave their kisses free and threw in a chromo, their lips would still go unmissed by Louisville swains, who are used to so much better osculation at home.

THE Hon. Charles J. Bronston denies the report that he wants the democratic nomination for governor and says that Hardin is in the lead; at least he is credited with such statements. We do not believe the latter, however. It looks very much to a man up the tree that Senator William Goebel, of Covington, will be the nominee for governor if he wants it.

THE Courier-Journal is having a great deal of fun with itself over the fact that Sam Shackelford is not an orator and consequently does not attempt to make speeches. It doesn't take an orator to make a good clerk and with such men as Bryan, Blackburn, Rhea and others to speak for him, what is the use of Shackelford speaking if he could?

FREE SILVER may be as dead as the institution of African slavery as Mr. Watterson is wont to assert, and then again it may not. At any rate its chief apostle is not. Bryan is the liveliest corpse in the United States to-day and can out draw a circus any day.

Additional Local.

LUCKY.—Worth McWhorter, of the Green River section, held ticket No. 1,313 which drew the handsome music box given away by Tanner Bros., of McKinney.

H. H. WADE has posted notices stating that he will apply at the November court for license to sell spirituous liquors in quart quantities at his residence near Mt. Salem.

SOME of the republicans are threatening to have A. A. Bastin's pension cut off, if he votes the democratic ticket, and he is investigating with a view to prosecute those who make the threat. There is a heavy fine for the offense.

LAUREL LAWLESSNESS.—At the present term of the Laurel circuit court there have been seven convictions to the penitentiary and there are over 30 persons confined in the county jail. In all this number there is not a single Negro. There are several more felony cases to be tried yet.

SHOOTING.—In a shooting affray at Dripping Springs Monday, Clarence Hall shot Joe Davis in the hip, inflicting a painful but not necessarily dangerous wound. Hall and a brother of Davis were engaged in a fight when the latter jumped behind Joe Davis, who caught the ball intended for his brother. Hall, thinking the fight occurred in Garrard, went to Lancaster and gave himself up. Constable Anderson notified the authorities here, who ordered him brought here and his trial will occur Saturday. In the meantime he is out on bond.

MCKINNEY.—Madison McKinney, who would have been 88 had he lived a week longer, died Wednesday at his home near Mt. Salem, of old age coupled with a complication of troubles. He was a fine old gentleman and few men there are who had the better will of his fellow man than he. Mr. McKinney had been ill for a long time but bore his sufferings without a murmur and patiently awaited the end which he knew full well was but the beginning of a brighter life. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at McKinney in the presence of a large crowd which assembled to pay their respects to the honored dead. Besides three daughters he leaves the following sons, all of whom are good citizens of this county: J. J., A. B., George S. and William McKinney.

SEE Polk Miller and company at Walton's Opera House, Oct. 20.

THE ladies who petitioned the city council to stop the cursing on Joekey street court days say it has improved the wrong way—there is more cursing than before, while drunken men were strewn from the Spraggins' pump to Dix River bridge Monday night.

FRIENDS here sympathize deeply with Col. and Mrs. J. W. Caperton, of Richmond, in the loss of their little Katherine, who died Monday of brain fever, aged three years. She was unusually bright and was the idol not only of her parents, but all who knew her.

THE Baptist ladies tried yesterday afternoon to see how elegantly they could entertain all the Ladies' Aid Societies of the other churches at the spacious residence of Mr. J. N. Menefee. The large dining room was beautifully decorated and the table laden with everything palatable, which was served in four courses. A large crowd was present and the entire afternoon was one of genuine pleasure, Christian love flowing as freely as the Water of Life and nobody's neighbors were criticised adversely. Mrs. R. S. Lytle, Mrs. Kate Miller, Mrs. Joe F. Waters, Mrs. J. H. McAllister, Mrs. Mahony, Mrs. J. S. Rice, the Misses Menefee, Mrs. E. L. Reinhart, Miss Linda Miller, and in fact all the Baptist ladies were tireless in their efforts to make the entertainment a complete success. In which they succeeded wonderfully well. The best plans of spreading the Gospel were freely discussed. These Societies are accomplishing incalculable good.
